Dedication

We, the students of Bryan High School, are deeply appreciative of the citizens of Bryan—our parents, our teachers, and those in all walks of life who have given us our new high school. Its modern beauty and spaciousness provide us with an ideal place in which to prepare for our future. It is with sincere gratitude that we, the Zeta Cordia staff of 1959 and the students of Bryan High School, dedicate this book to the citizens of Bryan as a "thank you" for their cooperation and contribution in making our new high school possible.

The invisible spirit of B. H. S. has long been the Golden Bear. However, now for the first time in twenty years, this spirit has taken tangible form. Our perky mascot, whom we christened "Sure-win," has participated in many school activities. We feel that he is well qualified for the task of guiding you through the pages of our 1959 Zeta Cordia, and hope that you will enjoy following his "bear tracks."

Revise Program

Club Night Is Wednesday

This was a year of heavy responsibility for our Superintendent and Board of Education. Though our building was completed, many details remained to be taken care of. Public opinion demanded adjustments in the curriculum and the activity program.

Superintendent Howard Rogge, serving his sixteenth year in Bryan, was painstakingly thorough in his attention to our needs. He continued to be active in community projects and in both State Department and Ohio Education Association work. For relaxation he enjoyed his hobby, photography, and occasional trips to games at his alma mater, O.S.U. when he also visited Becky and Bill, now both enrolled there.

Shown below is the Bryan City Board of Education: Wilbur Donaldson, Hugh Lindsey, Howard Rogge (Superintendent), Russell Mignery (Clerk-Treasurer), Frederick Parker (Vice-President) Carl Miller, and Arthur Spletzer, Jr. (President).

Mr. Newell, completing his fourth year as our principal, is a graduate of Kalamazoo College and the University of Michigan. His greatest concerns are the improvement of our instruction program and through personal counseling he is able to do. He is a Student Council adviser and is a loyal supporter of all B.H.S. activities.

His duties include the ability grouping and examination schedules which were new to us this year, and the supervision of various standardized tests. These include the National Merit Scholarship Test, the Scholarship Qualifying Test (for quantitative and verbal ability), the O.S.U. Psychological Test, the Terman-Macnamarr Intelligence Test, and the state tests which cover nineteen subjects. Mrs. Newell is also chairman of the county Senior Scholarship Test Committee.

Five New Teachers Join Faculty

Bryan's new high school proved to be a drawing card in attracting teachers to fill our vacancies. After the inconveniences of moving last February, September found our quarters fully equipped with pencil sharpeners, drinking fountains, erasers, and all the other essentials. In keeping with current educational trends B.H.S. placed stronger emphasis on academic instruction and slightly curtailed extra-curricular activities. Semester and final examinations appeared on our schedule, and ability grouping set up a learn-at-your-own-rate program.

Lunchroom Food and Fun

Mrs. GRACE CARR, our school lunch supervisor, shown at right, is a wizard at planning colorful and nutritious "type A" meals for her 950 luncheon guests. In addition to their daily work, the cafeteria staff serve distinctive menus for such outstanding affairs as the G.A.A. dinner, the Y-Teen Mother-Daughter Banquet, and Junior-Senior.

Assistant head cooks are Mrs. Beulah McGlenen at Washington School, Mrs. Ann Ensign at Lincoln, and Mrs. Lucy Struble at the high school. Eight other cooks are on the staff, plus ten student helpers for each school who assist with serving, washing dishes, and cashiering.

Our Health—Her Happiness

Each day our petite and peppy City Nurse, Mrs. HELEN SETTLES, shown at left, cares for a multitude of sore throats, sniffles, headaches, jammed thumbs, and other student ailments. She has an office in each school and makes her services available to all 2,300 Bryan pupils as well as to residents of the city. The Women's Federation contributes supplies. This year Mrs. Settles engineered a dental clinic, eye and ear inspections, and physical examinations for the fifth graders. She is a graduate of Western Pennsylvania Hospital.

Seniors

We, the seniors of 1959, have finally reached the coveted position as the leaders and representatives of BHS. This year it was our turn to meet deadlines for Hi-Life and Zeta Cordia, and shoulder many other responsibilities of the school activities. Many of us were disappointed at losing the senior cubby hole at the old school but we received a compensation by being given exclusive use of the new community room shown above and below.

In Memoriam

JOSEPH EDWIN DELONG

As we, the Class of 1959 look back on our high school years, we deeply regret the loss of our classmate, Joe DeLong, who passed away February 28, 1958. His interest in the classroom and his genuine friendliness have been and always will be missed by all of us. As it has been said, "To lose one of us is to lose a part of each of us."

Juniors

The juniors experienced a year of hard work as they sold mums for homecoming and Christmas cards. Concessions at games and profits from dances also helped to net money for their big project, the annual Junior-Senior dinner and dance. As May drew near, the juniors could be seen whispering excitedly as they made final preparations for the big night. When May 8 finally arrived, they proudly opened the doors upon a beautifully arrayed gym for the benefit of their senior guests.

In 1956 Sarah Huard, Barb Read, Cliff Fenton, and Lee Kyser, then the officers of the seventh grade, stood before Park School which was at that time about to be razed for the building of the new high school. Now, three years later, three of these same students, Sarah Huard, Cliff Fenton, and Lee Kyser have seen the new high school become a reality and are sophomores within its portals.

The sophomore class this year sponsored a dance, had a bakesale, and had charge of concessions at a game in order to raise money for their junior-senior next year.

Hall of Fame

Dave Roebuck, at right, proved to be one of the most outstanding gridgers ever to play for B.H.S. During his last three years he earned four All-League positions: defensive halfback (1956), offensive halfback (1957, 1958), and defensive linebacker (1958). As a senior he was high scorer in the league with 91 points and booted two field goals for a new record. "Buck" was also named to the Associated Press All-Ohio Second Team and as an alternate for the North Team in the North-South All-Star Game to be played this summer

Senior Larry Shade, shown below, traveled to Detroit, October 4-5, as a guest of Ford Motor Company after receiving first prize in the wrought iron division and the outstanding achievement award for the entire metals division in the Ford Industrial Arts Award competition. Later Wilbur Donaldson, president of Ford Motor Sales in Bryan, presented Larry with a trophy and a hundred dollar check in behalf of the Ford Foundation for his fine work

Kay Boynton, our vivacious drum majorette, has also received many awards, including fifty-five trophies which she has won with her sister Janet. In 1953 she received the runner-up trophy for the intermediate division in the state and in 1955 was a member of the Shirlettes, a twirling quartette, which won the State Championship

The freshman class of 1958-59 will have the distinction of being the first class to spend its entire four-year high-school career in the new building. These freshmen will also be the first class to experience the full four years under the new "ability grouping" program. As a more thorough preparation for college under the new program, the freshmen were given more written and research work to do.

Aside from their stiffened academic schedule, the freshmen joined in the fun of clubs and extra-curricular activities as they began their climb toward graduation.

Student Life

PROVIN' PRINCIPLES, Sure-win does a demonstration for Joan Partee, Sharon Newcomer, Stanley Goram, and Tom Stahl.

To School We Go

This year several million high school students like ourselves graduated from our American schools. Although our system of education has been a subject of much controversy recently, we students, the products of this system, have deep faith in its basic principles. Throughout our four years each of us has sought in his own way to prepare himself for the responsibilities of a modern world. Some of us seek higher types of education while others of us have chosen to enter the many different vocational fields for which our high school training has prepared us. As our education progressed, all of us, according to our individual receptiveness, have striven to build the foundations for our adult lives upon the principles of respect, responsibility, and reliability.

During these high school years of decisions and plans, our teachers and counselors have dedicated themselves to helping us in the development of our individual skills and creative abilities on which we will build our future careers and vocations.

Here at Bryan High School we students are offered a wide variety of subjects which are grouped into six different curriculums. For the students who have no special plans a general course is offered, while those of us who plan to enter college follow the college entrance curriculum. Others find their interests in commercial and business fields. Many of the boys choose to develop individual abilities in the industrial arts while some of the girls look forward to being homemakers as they progress in the vocational home economics field. The vocational agriculture curriculum educates our future farmers who will some day be our food providers. Represented here are some of the required courses which form the basis around which all of us build our schedules for our four years.

The first three years find us studying English as a basic requirement while American history and civics occupy part of our time during our junior and senior years. Too, all of us participate in a physical education and health program.

College Bound

With approximately fifty per cent of Bryan High School's graduates heading for a higher education, we, who are college bound, place much emphasis upon academic subjects. The installation of a language laboratory and additional years of language study make understanding our neighbors much easier. With science playing a larger role than ever before in our world, we students find the answers to our questions in fully-equipped labs under competent supervision. Math classes, with their variety of interesting and challenging problems, provide a sound background for those of us planning to take these courses in college. Learning of the past and present in social studies provides us with much valuable information that is essential for college and later life. We also take advantage of scholarship tests and semester exams which help us to find our individual abilities and capitalize upon these assets as we further our education. These are the basic steps upon which we climb our stairway toward our goals in education.

Throughout our high school years we students who are interested in college are constantly challenged by the question of which college offers the best program for our needs. We feel a deep appreciation for our parents, teachers, and professional people who have striven to guide us in the proper direction. In order to become better acquainted with some of the colleges, representatives of these colleges and universities visit B.H.S. They answer many questions and give us much information in order to give us an over-all view of their respective college or university

Special Interests—

Special Courses

Students Acquire Many Vocational Skills

Those of us who wish to enter into the many phases of the vocational world prepare for our futures as the homemakers and farmers of tomorrow by studying a diversified range of vocational subjects. Our new school includes within its vast interior two beautifully furnished home economics rooms where the girls learn the arts of cooking, sewing, and home management. In the rear of the school are modern, well-equipped industrial arts, printing, and farm shops in which the boys learn the latest technical methods and skills for earning a living.

Today's Commercial Students— Tomorrow's Executives

We who are the business-minded students of B.H.S. take advantage of the excellent commercial department in our new school. We not only acquire the basic fundamentals of business operations but also the psychological aspects of selling, and work to develop pleasing personalities with which to make our way into the modern business world. Commercial training is climaxed in our senior year when the students in the office practice class act as secretaries for the faculty. Our expert training in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typing prepare us for the requirements of a successful secretarial or business career.

Upper left, Personal typing attracts both commercial and college prep students. Upper right: Sue Stockton and Janet Partee find that bookkeeping is a very intricate subject. Below: Looking over Virginia Henry's shoulder enlightens only shorthand students.

Through the year the Council sponsored a large number of activities: the Kick-off Dance, paid assemblies, record hops, Homecoming, scholarship tests, the selection of cheerleaders, the Community Chest drive, noon candy sales, and the popcorn concession. New this year was a noon movie program through which the Council and the Visual Education Department presented such movies as "Mr. Roberts," "Frogmen," and "Battleground." On the lighter side, the Council enjoyed a Christmas party and a picnic. Boys' and Girls' State delegates were honorary members.

Annual Staff Produces 46th Zeta Cordia

Budget Gets Bigger and Bigger!

Without the new ideas and knowledge gained from the National Scholastic Press Association's convention attended each year by previous staffs, the members of the 1959 Zeta Cordia staff bravely embarked on their goal: the production of a yearbook worthy to take its place among B.H.S. annuals. Led by co-editors Kathie Spangler and Wally Richardson, the staff made several changes this year. A single division page replaced the former double-page spread; a Hall of Fame page was added; and after arranging the various club members by height, the staff photographers took all of the club pictures, using the new Crown Graffix purchased by last year's staff. Meeting Monday nights at adviser Mrs. Robrock's home, the staff worked toward its deadlines, which fell on the fifteenth of every month. Early in the year the staff sponsored a "name-our-bear" contest for the new mascot of B.H.S., whose perky purple and gold uniform was contributed by the Spanglers and was worn by various students, including Kathie Spangler, Charlotte Lantz and Leah Kunkle. Greg Vitale, whose name "Sure-win" was selected, received a free annual.

First Year for Hi-Life Co-editors

Paper Has New Size, New Price

Larry Brannan and Sandra Strong, the first co-editors in the history of Hi-Life, with adviser Mrs. Ginther, promoted several changes in the paper this year. The page size was reduced but the average issue contained ten pages, an increase over last year's paper. Under business manager Sandra Ringer the price was lowered from fifteen to ten cents per copy. Other innovations included having the paper printed by Gorny Winzlers and the addition of a section for grade school news which increased the circulation to approximately one thousand copies. Hi-Life appeared fourteen times during the year, and the two special issues for Christmas and graduation were larger and doubly interesting. Roto, the National Scholastic Press Association's paper, continued to be sold as a part of Hi-Life. Hi-Life was entered for judging and comments at Bowling Green State University and several members of the staff earned membership in the Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for students in the field of journalism.

The Hi-Life staff enjoyed a room of its own after having done the production of the paper in classrooms previously. Shown at right are Ida Shatzer, Vicki Robinett, Jo Douglass and Tom Nerad making use of the new facilities.

Inspiration and Fun Make Worthwhile Meetings

Sophomore, junior and senior girls belonging to Y-Teens met the second Wednesday of each month for Christian worship and fellowship. November 12 the girls and their mothers heard an inspiring talk presented by Mrs. Roebuck at the induction service held in the Presbyterian Church. Although the tradition of the Hi-Y, Y-Teen Hunt was discontinued this year, the two clubs enjoyed a joint Christmas party and supper. Other meetings included an interesting review of Pat Boone's "Twixt Twelve and Twenty" by Mrs. Joseph Newell, and a World Fellowship banquet. Members of the Bryan club also participated in many extra YWCA activities. Barbara Billow and Anitra Bard enjoyed a week at the Y-Teen summer camp, and the cabinet attended the District YWCA Conference in October. Miss Max, Judi Pollock, and Maureen Ramsey, shown at left, were delegates to the United Nations Study Trip October 22-26. In addition to funds donated by the Community Chest, Y-Teens further replenished its treasury by selling mixed nuts. The climax of the year came at the annual Mother-Daughter banquet when the coveted Claire Newcomer award was presented to Willadene Rigg.

Hi-Y Hosts District Conference

After sending Duane Brown and Jim Altaffer to the Leadership Training Camp during the summer, the Hi-Y, holding meetings the second Wednesday of each month, proceeded into a year of varied activities. In October the Bryan Club hosted the District Hi-Y Conference with a dinner and entertainment at the Methodist Church. In December new members were inducted in an impressive ceremony at the Presbyterian Church and the Hi-Y held a joint Christmas party with the Y-Teens. As a service to the community after the holidays, the club picked up 800 Christmas trees and disposed of them. A swimming party at the Fort Wayne YMCA and a panel given by a group of the club members provided other interesting meetings. Community Chest contributions, the sale of taffy, and dues financed Hi-Y's projects including sending Dick Brannan and Duane Brown, (shown at left) to the Hi-Y Model Legislature in Columbus during April.

F. F. A. Boys Have Yearlong Projects

With Mr. Saunders as adviser the twenty-three members of the Future Farmers of America met the third Wednesday night throughout the year to engage in many interesting meetings and useful projects. A scrap drive and the sale of garden seeds, colored chicks and cider bolstered the club's treasury. The future farmers also took part in many county and state F.F.A. activities. Several boys represented the Bryan chapter in the Parliamentary Procedure Contest January 26 and also in the Public Speaking Contest. The summer months found some of the members attending the State Live-stock Judging and the State F.F.A. camp. Throughout the year the boys worked toward the various agricultural degrees which are given: Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, and American Farmer. Nine achieved their Chapter Farmer degrees and Nelson May, a 1958 graduate, received his State Farmer degree. Other interesting activities included a trip to Campbell Soup Company in Napoleon December 23, and the annual F.F.A. banquet at which Phyllis Calvert, shown at left, was crowned queen and presented an F.F.A. jacket by Vice-president Don Lewis.

F. H. A. Girls Learn Hostess Arts

Following their motto, "Toward New Horizons," the forty-six members of F.H.A. met the third Wednesday of each month for a variety of informative meetings and projects. After taking part in the programs at the County and Sub-regional F.H.A. meetings in September and October, the Bryan chapter held its formal initiation October 15. In November the girls heard a talk on "Teenage Consumers" presented by Mrs. Priest, of the Miss Shaker Shoppe. The group went Christmas caroling and made favors for hospital trays as service projects. A hayride, a program on civil defense and safety, a banquet in honor of the degree winners and a senior farewell concluded the year. Members sold pom-poms for the Homecoming and served at the F.F.A. banquet as money-making projects. Charlotte Short and Marilyn Siegel, shown at right with Mrs. Shockley, worked toward their State Homemaker Degrees and attended the State F.H.A. Convention April 24-25.

Mrs. Arthur Short, Mrs. Earl Siegel, Mrs. Charles Brannon, and Mrs. Orza Cook served as chapter mothers and Mr. Jack Shockley was chapter father.

The Future Teachers of America not only acquaints students with the teaching profession but also prepares tomorrow's leaders with a knowledge and appreciation of the American educational system. Bryan's chapter of the F.T.A. was named in honor of Blanche Mattox who, in 1958, retired after fifty-five years of service to Bryan schools. Following her ideals, members learned about the teaching profession through visiting elementary classrooms in session and helping the high school faculty with typing and grading. Various F.T.A. members also attended several outstanding conferences held this year: a Senior Career Day at Bowling Green State University and the State F.T.A. Convention at Capital University. Dick Brannan, Charlotte Lantz, Carol Boucher and Pete Shindledecker presented a panel on the choosing of a college and various other aspects of a higher education at the Northwest Ohio Teachers Meeting in October. With Mr. Johnson and Mr. Webster as advisers the club also participated in a full schedule of social activities including a wiener roast at Mrs. Robrock's, and the annual Christmas party with a white elephant gift exchange and comedy films. Throughout the year the selling of pennants, decals, and combs bolstered the club's finances. The year closed with a picnic at Pokagon and the honoring of the seniors.

Mask and Sandalites Attend Conferences

In June, 1958, eleven Mask and Sandal members, with Mrs. Robrock and Mr. Dierks, attended the National Thespian Conference at Purdue University. In October, thirty-five students presented "The Stone in the Road" at the Regional Conference at St. Mary's, and a large group attended a clinic presentation of arena theatre at Defiance College. These experiences gave the students higher acting standards and much enthusiasm for dramatic activities.

Meeting the third Wednesday of each month, the club began by rehearsing "Charley's Aunt," presented November 21-22. "A By-Line for St. Luke," directed by Linda Hitt, was the Christmas play. Other short plays, pantomimes, entry in the Bowling Green festival, Thespian initiation, and oscar awards rounded out the year. 1958 oscars were won by Diane Brace and Robert Perkins (acting) and Larry Raymond (technician). Larry Raymond and Judy Noonan were named Best Thespians.

Charley's Aunt

The cast of "Charley's Aunt," lively comedy by Brandon Thomas, presented a picture of the British Gay 90's at Oxford University. Students Jack Chesney, Charles Wykeham, and Lord Fancourt Babberly (Charley's aunt) were played by Tom Voigt, Calvin Kaiser, and Pete Shindledecker. Stephen Spettigue, a lawyer, was Bernard Ruder, and Carol Carr was Amy Spettigue, his niece. Nance Stockwell played Kitty Verdun, Janie Hartley was Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez (Charley's real aunt), and Jean Lawrence was her niece Ella Delahey. John Hays portrayed Jack's father, Col. Sir Francis Chesney, and Kent Salzman was Brassett, the ubiquitous butler. Pat Ames served as student assistant director.

Producing "Charley's Aunt" required the efforts of a large auxiliary crew. Headed by Mike Solier, the business staff included Barbara Billow, Beverly Buchanan, Barbara Schneider, Sandy Buckmaster, Virginia Saneda, Bonnie Buehrer and Sharon Calvin. Dale Heyman was stage manager, Ron Motter was electrician, and Lorna Rigelman house chairman. Make-up and stage crews included Carol Dawson, Marietta Smith, Peggy White, Alyce McGlenen, Mary Kay Merillat, Barbara Read, Betty McNutt, Margaret Conkey, Clara Sproy, Nancy Thomas, Skip King, Janet Sidle, Janet Boynton, Pam Johnston, Wendie Carroll, and Sandra Kernen.

The Latin Club officially opened its year of fun and study with the new members dressed in togas and laurel wreaths for the initiation. All students who are taking Latin fulfill the eligibility requirements for this club, the only requisite being a genuine interest in Latin and Roman life. Meeting the fourth Wednesday of each month with Miss Max as adviser, the members studied Roman customs and the history of the Roman Empire and enjoyed participating in discussions of the classics. Latin bingo and other games proved to be very popular forms of entertainment. The highlight of the year was the annual Latin Club Banquet in the spring at which a typical Roman menu was served in the Roman style.

Los Amigos Espanoles spent the fourth Wednesday of each month at festive Spanish club meetings. The club, composed of seventeen members and adviser, Miss Royer, was open to anyone who had completed a year of Spanish. The initiation proved to be a gala affair as the members dressed in native garb. Other meetings consisted of Spanish games, music, and fortune-telling. The breaking of the piñata, which was in the form of a Santa Claus face this year, was the main attraction at the Christmas party held in the home of the president, Bob Bricker. During the party the club was treated to a Spanish meal, catered by a new Mexican restaurant in Defiance. The spring Taco Banquet, at which club pins were awarded for the first time, brought the year's activities to a close.

FOR BRYAN FANS ONLY! Margaret Conkey, Gail Speck, and Mary Bordner make money for G.A.A.

A gay round of hoola-hooping in Moore Park and the addition of 44 new freshman girls marked the beginning of the 1958-59 activities of the Girls' Athletic Association. Because of the increased enrollment of G.A.A. it was necessary to limit the number of intramural sports to three: basketball, volleyball, and bowling. Too, the number of points given for participation in a sport was raised from twenty-five to fifty. In addition to participating in intramurals, G.A.A. met the first Wednesday of each month. Selling Bryan High sweatshirts and stuffed animals, members raised funds for the annual G.A.A. spring formal. This year the theme "Mardi Gras" lent a gala atmosphere to the dinner and dance which were held April 3, three weeks earlier than formerly in order to prevent this dance and the junior-senior from occurring two weeks apart. The year's activities ended with the inspiring Walkan, an Indian ceremony honoring the departing seniors.

The Record Speaks in Books and Pictures

Our spacious darkroom and beautiful library greatly aided the work of our student photographers and librarians. A Crown Graffix, purchased by the annual staff, was added to the school's Busch Pressman to turn out a pictorial record of the year.

Student librarians shouldered most of the circulation work in our 5000-volume library, handling fifty to a hundred books daily. Reference work increased, and more advanced science books were added. Mrs. Robrock supervised both photographers and librarians, with Mr. Masten giving valuable aid in photography.

Both Nancy and Leah have been active leaders in a number of school organizations and both are members of the National Honor Society. Their ideals of co-operation and service have inspired those who worked with them.

To the whistle of drum majorette Kay Boynton the A-Band stepped off for a season of parades, special appearances, and a concert under the direction of Mr. Hartman. During the summer months the members marched at the Fremont Convention in Crestline, Ohio, the Memorial Day Parade, and twice at the Jubilee. They also presented special music during the coronation of the Jubilee Queen. Fall found the band busy with shows for the nine football games and the County Fair plus parades for the Corn Festival in Swanton, the Wauseon Homecoming, and Halloween. Christmas time also brought the musicians out in a parade to open the Yule season. Other performances included a concert February 8 and the Panorama of Music in May. Also, the band members attended a band clinic in Archbold January 9.

Appearing in resplendent new red and white dresses, the senior girls' ensemble, "The Stardusters," under the direction of Mrs. Dally, led the parade of Bryan High's renowned vocal ensembles. To the strains of "Bali Hai" they opened a medley of selections from "South Pacific" and combined with the other three ensembles to close with "Some Enchanted Evening" as a special feature this year. Highlights of the season included performances for the Auburn Creditors' Association, the Men's Intra-Club Meeting, the Christmas program, and the Panorama of Music.

The "Downbeats," a quartet composed of three seniors and one junior, delighted their audiences with "Coney Island Baby," "Surrey with the Fringe on Top," and many other old-time favorites. Their rendition of "There's Nothin' Like a Dame" added an enjoyable masculine touch to the medley of "South Pacific" melodies.

Junior Orchestra Presents Two Concerts

Training Program for Strings Is Unique

The future members of our high school orchestras are trained and developed under Mr. Dally's meticulous direction in the Junior Orchestra. Fifty-five players make up the full orchestra at present but the potential number of string players between the fifth and eighth grades is eighty to one hundred. This string group now is the product of a rigid summer program held for eight weeks, five days a week at eight o'clock in the morning. The woodwind and brass sections are obtained from B-Band by try-out. To further develop their skills as a whole the orchestra tackled numbers such as Handel's "Water Music," "The Music Man," "Komm Susser Tod," and "Song of the Troubadours" which they performed in their two concerts presented January 18 and March 8.

Cheerleaders Are First in Spirit and Sportsmanship

"Beat 'em, Bryan, beat 'em!" resounded across the gridiron and cage court many times during our athletic season of 1958-59. Our traditional cheers were led by a peppy quintet under the direction of Coach Maneval. The senior members of the group were Gwen Jones, head cheerleader, and Saundy Ringer, serving her fourth year in the cheering squad. Members looking forward to trying out again next year were juniors Janie Hartley and Polly Brownwell and sophomore Lynda Peters. Special skits and stunts which were presented to the student body during pep sessions were organized by the cheerleaders. As an added attraction at the homecoming game, the cheerleaders rode to the football field in an old car decorated especially for the occasion. On November 15 the girls with Miss Maneval and Miss Gordon, attended a clinic at Bowling Green University where they learned new cheers and studied crowd psychology.

Championship Bears Undefeated in League

When the final gun sounded for the last time, the last touchdown had been scored, and the echoes of the last cheer faded away over the cleat-scarred gridiron, the memories of an unforgettable football season continued to linger.

For the coaches it was a season of planning and perfecting. Their job was that of transmitting the knowledge gained through years of experience, into the minds and bodies of the players.

For the players it was a season of aches and pains, seemingly endless practices, and a few brief periods of glory which made it all worth while. Pride in their team, desire to improve, and a love for football were the characteristics of the Bryan championship football team of 1958.

For the fans it was a season of thrills as they saw the Purple and Gold rack up 285 points while holding the opponents to 102, a period of disappointment as they saw Maumee knock their favorites from the undefeated ranks, and a period of smiles and pride as their heroes brought Bryan's first undisputed league championship in eighteen years.

The season was a great one: a great coach, a great team, a great record. Little more could be asked.

Seniors Spark Brilliant Grid Season

Eleven seniors played through a brilliant football season, setting records and winning Bryan's first undisputed league title in eighteen years. Coach Martinelli states that this is the finest team he has ever coached and that these boys, led by the eleven seniors, were definitely outstanding in an all-round way.

Spotlighting the senior team members we saw terrific skill and ability. Remember Duane Brown's terrific touchdown passes which helped to bring eleven scores during the season, Dick Burn's beautiful blocking of a punt during the Liberty Center game, Dave Roebuck's two field goals, Dick Brannon's thrilling pass interceptions, and Dan Spangler and Ron Payne's explosive running? Also, Jim Altaffer's fine blocking, Bob Blaisdell's fine work at center, Mark Phillip's trap blocks, John Hadley's terrific morale boosting, and Ron Figgins help during practice combined to produce one of the greatest grid teams that B.H.S. has ever had.

Members of this squad include Sheila Michael, Janet Boynton, and Julie Stockwell who are all sophomores plus two juniors, Diane Sprow, and Mary Jo Mason.

Leading cheers at the freshman football and basketball games was the job of the freshman cheerleading quintette, Susan Knecht, Wendie Williams, Margaret Phillips, Beth Brown, and Cathy Hays. Largely because of the spirited leadership of the cheerleaders, junior high and freshman games were well attended by enthusiastic fans.

Bears Take Third Consecutive Cage Crown

Varsity Posts 13-6 Overall Record

November — A question mark hung over the Bryan High Gymnasium. With five lettermen returning from last season's championship team, the Bryan fans expected a winner and they got one as the Bears captured their third consecutive league title after a season of hard-fought games. Many advocates, however, were disappointed when tournament time rolled around as the Bears' lack of consistency knocked the Bryan quintet out of the sectional running. A small core of Bryan backers witnessed the opener at Perrysburg as the rusty cagers, after starting slowly, pulled away in the second half to win their first game by a safe margin. Early in the season Bryan downed Wauseon, their greatest obstacle in the path to the league crown. After Defiance sneaked by Bryan in their first meeting, the Bears, perhaps playing their best game of the season, came back to clobber the Bulldogs by a 25 point margin. The next night Bryan played the high-ranked Spartans of Lima. Holding their own for three quarters, the fourth quarter depth of the Spartans proved to be just too much for the Bears. In the non-league tilt which closed the regular schedule for 1958-59, the Wauseon

Indians, with a "beat the champions" attitude, took a good whack at the Bears, downing them 53-45. However, by defeating Montpelier January 30 in the last league game of the season, Bryan set a new record, having won 24 consecutive league games, the most ever to be won by a league team since the NOAL was formed in 1926.

Every night the varsity needed practice and Coach Sumpter's reserves provided the competition. They were the guinea pigs on whom Coach Ebersole tried his new tactics. Composed of sophomores and juniors, the reserves stood behind the champions waiting their chance. They also played through a very exciting season which was filled with many one-point wins. Losing to Wauseon in an over-time and to Montpelier by one point in the last fifteen seconds of the game gave the team a 4-2 record in the NOAL as they took second place.

Bryan Thinlies Do It Again

Records Crash as Bears Take League

Spring 1958 — Bryan High tracksters ran through another successful season. The Bears not only swept the League meet and the Bryan night relays for the second time in two years, but they also placed sixth in the District meet at Bowling Green. In the Bryan relays the Bears copped 10 of the 14 first places.

For the overall season the Bryan thinclads chalked up 15 records. Jim Ginther, Bryan's Mr. Discus, broke the Bryan all-time record, the Park stadium record, and the League record. The climax of his achievements came on May 16 when Jim threw the discus 149 feet 8½ inches for a new District Record. John Hartman, Bryan's No. 1 sprint man, blazed through the 440 yard dash in 52 seconds for a new school record. On the same afternoon the half-mile relay team, composed of Cliff Black, Dave Roebuck, Ron Payne and John Hartman, combined to set a new Bryan all-time record whipping it out in 1:34.4. In the League meet held in Bryan, Cliff "Deacon" Black wiped out the League record in the half-mile, running it in 2:07. Dave Roebuck, Ron Payne, Jon Fitzenrider and John Hartman were clocked at 3:37.7 in the mile relay at the District finals which was also a new school record. Chuck Freiley proved many times to be Coach Martinelli's top mile runner.

The Reserves won both their dual meets by outrunning Archbald and Hicksville. The Frosh, like the Reserves, looked promising as they won their League meet with little difficulty.

Sultans of Swat Bears Win Fourth Title

The 1958 baseball team continued its winning ways and could boast a batting average of .305 — the highest recorded since baseball became a varsity sport in 1952. Coached by Ray Sumpter and Bernie Hatch, the Bears turned in an impressive 11—3 mark for the season. With a perfect League record, they also captured their fourth straight Sectional championship. In the District tournament, they out-hit Anthony Wayne 7—2, but lost the game 1—0.

Brannon's .425 batting average, Daniel Young's 18 hits, and Bob Kyser's new RBI record of 22 were memorable accomplishments. Pitcher Dave Roebuck worked 57 innings, allowing only 18 hits, 7 runs (4 earned) and struck out 97.

Coach Ebersole's golfers started slow but picked up momentum as the season progressed. After tasting defeat in their opening meet at the hands of strong Napoleon team, the Bears came back to outdrive Archbold $23\frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2}$. In the third meet Bryan suffered a one-point loss to Swanton but returned four days later to whip Defiance $15\frac{1}{2}-8\frac{1}{2}$. Playing their great county rivals, Montpelier, the Bears took a sweeping victory $20-4$, but later were trounced once again by Napoleon $18\frac{1}{2}-5\frac{1}{2}$. An $18-6$ win over Swanton, a one-point defeat by the Defiance team, and $22-2$ tromping of Montpelier ended the season giving Bryan a $5-4$ over-all record. In the League meet held at Napoleon, Bryan was second to Napoleon for the third straight season. In the Montpelier Invitational on May 24, Bryan golfers shot an impressive $52-9$ to capture second place. Medalist for that meet was junior Mark Phillips with a 75. In the final meet of the season which Bryan won easily over Montpelier, sophomore Bob Lowe shot a blazing 73, which is perhaps the lowest score ever shot in a Bryan meet.

Junior Musicians Strive Toward A-Band Requisites

Sixth, seventh, and eighth graders composed the eighty-member B-Band. During these three years the group strives to perfect its marching and playing. The B-Band marched in the Jubilee and Memorial Day parades and played in two concerts, practicing for their biggest moment — try-outs for the A-Band.

This Was the Year

A Bell, a Rock, and

Forty-nine Stars

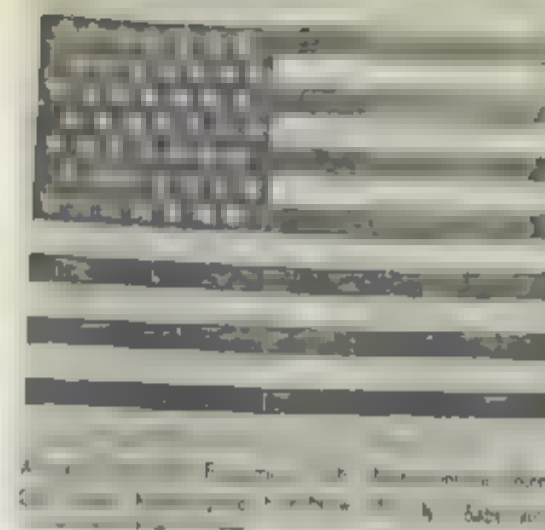

With the bell from old Park School and a rock inscribed seventy years ago to remind us that the present is built on the past, the class of 1959 found their graduation year full of extremes. It was dizzy with hula hoops, breathless from leaping into space, and fearful from teetering on the brink of war. Rains were heavier, snows were deeper, and winter was colder than in many years. From two miles above us came the sonic boom of jets from Dayton, and twinkling in the sky were man-made satellites. Bryan now numbered 7,500, according to Mayor Christman. Route 6 by-passed us on the south, while from the turnpike came more "pig-pen plaza" headlines. Cameron Hospital opened a 31-bed addition, and the Community Chest, for the first time, fell short of its quota. The Parent-Teacher Council replaced the Mothers' Club, and the Ohio Art celebrated its 50th anniversary. Jan Black was our Jubilee Queen, and doughtiest of travelers, Cass Cullis and Ernest Spangler brought back reports from Russia. Miss Alice Wilder, beloved senior citizen died at 95.

Mike DiSalle, Toledo Democrat, ousted William O'Neill as Ohio's governor. Alaska placed the forty-ninth star in Old Glory, but to the south, as the Bryan Times put it, "The Ship of State struck a Little Rock." School integration met with armed resistance in Arkansas and massive resistance in Virginia. Many seniors became the "Lost Class" as private schools failed to replace adequately the closed public schools.

Station WTOL-TV added Channel 11 to our tele-viewing. We saw the crew of the Nautilus soon after they had cruised under the North Pole, August 3. We watched ICBM firings at Cape Canaveral, and heard President Eisenhower's Christmas message from the Atlas in outer space.

... brought by Dr. L. Schawer

We saw films of the funeral of Pope Pius XII and of the accession of Pope John XXIII. The UN debate on the Lebanon crisis where the U.S. Marines were on guard duty, Fidel Castro's revolution in Cuba with its aftermath of war crimes trials, the Yankee victory over the Braves in the World Series, and Iowa's crushing defeat of California State U. in the Rose Bowl — all were brought home to us, literally, by TV. Entertainment-wise, Westerns crowded the TV screens, headed by gun-toting Paladin, Marshal Dillon, Peter Gunn, Maverick, and the Rifleman. Pat Boone, Perry Mason, and Zorro held their devoted followings.

As spring approached, girls were buying leotights, boys were wearing hats and narrow lapels, and everybody was chuckling over "Mad" magazine. "South Pacific" in Todd-A-O was a show to see, also "The Vikings" and "Auntie Mame." D.J.'s featured Ricky Nelson with "Lonesome Town," the Everly brothers with "Devoted to You," and the zany Chipmunks. Teenagers were looking ahead to college, good jobs in a stable economy, and the draft. Shaping their destinies, however, were distant but powerful forces — the tax debate in Congress, DeGaulle in France, Khrushchev in Moscow demanding that the western powers vacate Berlin, Mao Tse-Tung in control of Communist China . . . In a world of gathering clouds, great hopes were being based on the education of young Americans.

Dear Students of BHS

I have certainly enjoyed being the guide for the tour through this Zeta Corda year treasury of memories from the 1958-59 school year. Several changes were made this season in the school program and I wish to congratulate you for your fine cooperation in adapting it. I watched throughout this year and saw you students excel in scholarship, music, dramatics, and athletics. Your hard work and resulting fine performances in these fields made me very proud to be a part of BHS.

Good luck to all of you in the future, especially the seniors.

Yours truly,
"Sure-win"
